♪ Track 1: The Beginning (Void to Life)

Verse 1

In the silence before the sound
No sky above, no solid ground
Waters deep with no design
No rhythm yet, no sense of time

A formless world, empty and wide
No breath, no voice, no place to hide

Verse 2

Then something moved no eye could see
A holy force, a mystery
Hovering soft above the deep
Awakening what seemed asleep
Not chaos now, but order near
The voice of power drawing near

Hook (Chorus)

From the void, You called out light
Turned the dark into the bright
Where there was nothing, life began
By the Word and by Your hand
From the silence, You spoke life
Cut through darkness like a knife
Now I see what You can do
If You made the world—you can remake me too

Verse 3

“Let there be light,” the heavens heard
Creation formed by just a Word
Day and night began to stand
Time awakened by command
The skies stretched wide, the waters split
Every detail perfectly fit

Verse 4

Mountains rose and rivers flowed
Seeds of life began to grow
Trees reached high, the earth turned green
Beauty formed from what unseen

Every creature, every sound
Life was rising all around

Verse 5

Still there lingered something more
A deeper plan, a greater core
Not just creation standing still
But something shaped to know His will
A being formed with mind and soul
To carry out the highest goal

Bridge

You spoke the light, You formed the land
But You weren't done with just Your hand
You had a vision yet to be
A living soul in harmony

♪ Track 2: Dominion and Purpose

Verse 1

The earth was full, yet something missed
A deeper plan within the midst
The skies were set, the seas were wide
But no one there to rule or guide
Creation stood in beauty's frame
But none to carry Heaven's aim

Verse 2

Not just a creature bound by ground
But one in whom His thoughts are found
A mind to think, a will to choose
A voice that truth could boldly use
Not just to live, not just to breathe
But to understand and to believe

Hook (Chorus)

I was made for more than this
Not just life, but purpose is Written deep inside my soul
I was born to take control
Not in pride, but under Him
To reflect His light within
I've got dominion in my hands
I was made to rule this land

Verse 3

Dominion wasn't force or fear
But wisdom working crystal clear
To guard the earth, to build, sustain

To multiply, not live in vain
To take the chaos, shape it right
And bring all things into the light

Verse 4

Responsibility was the call
To rise in truth, not to fall
To study life, to understand
The works created by His hand
This was the birth of knowledge true
Where learning met what God could do

Verse 5

Not just survival, not just days
But building lives in ordered ways
Cities rising, vision strong
A place where purpose would belong
Not random steps, not drifting free
But walking in destiny

Bridge

You didn’t make me just to exist
There’s more to life than moments missed
You placed a vision in my heart
To build, to lead, to play my part

♪ Track 3: The First Love (Adam & Eve)

Verse 1

Formed from dust, yet filled with breath
A living soul untouched by death
He walked with God in morning light
No fear, no shame, all things were right
The garden bloomed beneath his feet
A perfect world, complete, complete

Verse 2

He named the beasts, the birds, the sea
Yet felt a quiet emptiness in me
For every creature had its pair
But none like him was standing there
A deeper need began to rise
Not seen with flesh, but in his eyes

Hook (Chorus)

This is the first love, heaven designed
Not just emotion, but purpose aligned
Bone of my bone, flesh of my frame
Two made as one, yet still the same

Not built on feeling, not built on chance
But written by God before the first glance
This is the love that was meant to be
A divine reflection of unity

Verse 3

A gentle sleep, a sacred plan
A woman formed out of the man
Not from his head to rule above
Not from his feet to lack his love
But from his side, close to his heart
A perfect union from the start

Verse 4

He saw her stand, his voice declared
“This is the one for whom I’m paired”
No confusion, no disguise
Recognition filled his eyes
No trial and error, no second guess
Just truth revealed in righteousness

♪ Track 4: The Deception

Verse 1

In the garden where peace would reign
A voice appeared with hidden gain
Not loud, not harsh, but soft and wise
Yet wrapped inside were subtle lies
It spoke of things that seemed so right
But carried shadows in its light

Verse 2

“Did God really say?” it came
Planting doubt, not force, but aim
A question shaped to shift the mind
To blur the truth, to make it blind

What once was clear now felt unsure
A seed of doubt began to stir

Hook (Chorus)

Be careful of the voice you hear
Not every sound is drawing near
To truth or life or holy ground
Some words destroy without a sound
It looks like wisdom, sounds so true
But hides a trap prepared for you
Not every voice that speaks is right
Some dress in darkness like they're light

Verse 3

The Word of God was clear and plain
Yet conversation brought the strain
A twist of truth, a subtle bend
Where warnings slowly start to end
What was forbidden now seemed small
Until deception covered all

Verse 4

It promised sight beyond the line
"To be like God," the great design
A higher state, a greater throne
To stand where only God is known
But hidden in that tempting call
Was not ascent—but greatest fall

Verse 5

Intelligence without the truth
Becomes a weapon in its youth
For knowledge gained without His light
Can turn the day into the night

And what looks wise in human eye
Can still be poison in disguise

With open hate or visible fear

One choice was made in Eden's light
That turned the day into the night

A seed of sorrow, born from pain
The voice of truth now felt so far
As shadows covered every scar

Verse 2

The command was clear, the warning sure
“To disobey will not endure”
Yet in a moment, will gave way
And innocence began to sway
A single act, a broken line
That changed the course of space and time

Hook (Chorus)

This is the fall of humankind
When truth was left so far behind
From life to death, from light to shade
A choice that all of us have paid
What once was perfect, pure, and whole
Now carries weight upon the soul
A fallen world, a broken state
All because of one mistake

Verse 3

No longer walking in the cool
No longer living by the rule
Of open fellowship and peace
Where every worry found release
Now shame appeared where joy once stood
And fear replaced what once was good

Verse 4

The eyes were opened, but not as planned
They saw themselves, not God’s command
And in that sight, they tried to hide

From presence they once walked beside
Leaves were gathered, covering shame
Yet nothing could erase the blame

Verse 5

From immortality to dust
From perfect trust to broken trust
The body now would taste decay
And life would slowly fade away

A promise rose beyond the power

One would walk in truth and light
Seeking God with all their might
The other drifting far away
Choosing darkness over day
Two streams flowing side by side
But only one would truly abide

Hook (Chorus)

Two seeds, two paths, one human race
One walks truth, one loses grace
One seeks heaven, one seeks pride
One stands with God, one turns aside
Every heart must choose its way
To walk in night or endless day
Two seeds grow where choices start
One from truth, one from the heart

Verse 3

The seed of promise, born from faith
Trusting God in every breath
Not by force or human will
But by obedience standing still
A line of hope through history's page
Carried forward from age to age

Verse 4

That bends toward selfish design
A nature born from fallen ground
Where pride and jealousy are found
A seed that chooses its own way
Rejecting truth to have its say

That sets each life forever apart
One leads to life, one leads to loss

Laying down His life for you
Not by force, but by His will Love that death could never kill
Redemption flowing through His blood
