The Original Sin(Lyrics)

Yahweh Music

Verse 1

In the garden where the Spirit walked with man,
Clothed in glory by a holy command
No shame, no death, no mortal breath,
Till a voice crossed the line God set

Not a serpent crawling in the dust,
But a subtle being clothed in trust
Upright, speaking, close to man,
The closest form to God's own plan

Pre-Chorus

It was not a fruit from a waiting tree,
It was a touch that should never be
A covenant broken before its time,
And death was born through a hidden crime

Chorus

It was not an apple from a tree
It was forbidden intimacy
The fall of man was not by bread
But by a seed placed in Eve's womb instead

Two seeds were born from that one sin,
Two bloodlines entered the world of men
Abel the seed of Adam's breath
Cain the seed that carried death

Verse 2

She was beguiled, not by hunger or taste,
But by wisdom that defiled her grace
She partook, then turned and gave,
And Adam followed what she made

From one conception sorrow came,
From another a righteous name
Twins conceived in a moment of time,
But born of fathers not the same

Pre-Chorus 2

One altar burned with humble blood,
One heart rose up against God

One was accepted, one was denied,
And envy armed the first homicide

Chorus

It was not an apple from a tree
It was forbidden intimacy
The fall of man was not by bread
But by a seed placed in Eve's womb instead

Two seeds were born from that one sin,
Two bloodlines entered the world of men
Abel the seed of Adam's breath
Cain the seed that carried death

Bridge

Enmity spoken by the voice of God,
Between the woman and the serpent's rod
Between her Seed and the serpent's line,
A war declared through space and time

Flesh can't heal what flesh became,
Self-righteous works are filthy stains
Born once in darkness, shaped by the fall,
Man could not save himself at all

Bridge 2 (Spoken / Low)

The first birth bound us to death
The second birth restores our breath

Verse 3

That's why the Seed had to come another way,
Not through man, not through decay
A virgin womb, untouched, clean,
No trace of the serpent's gene

Holy Ghost placed the living Word,
Blood from God, not Adam's dirt
The promised Seed bruised at the tree,
But crushed the head of the enemy

Final Chorus

It was not an apple from a tree
It was a broken boundary
But God had a plan before the fall
A Seed that would redeem us all

Two seeds once walked the earth in pain,
But only one eternal remains
From the garden to Calvary
Jesus destroyed the serpent's seed

Outro

Born again... not of flesh
Born again... not of blood
Only the Tree of Life stands now
And His name is Jesus Christ
