Album Inspiration

Holy Sweat by Yahweh Music was inspired by the timeless book Holy Sweat written by Tim Hansel. The album draws deeply from Hansel's powerful message that faith is not passive but active—lived out through effort, discipline, courage, and perseverance. Just as the book challenges readers to stretch beyond comfort and pursue God-given potential, the album translates these truths into music, capturing the spirit of adventure, peak performance, and servant leadership. Each song reflects the call to turn belief into action, embracing the “holy sweat” that comes from fully committing one’s life, gifts, and purpose to God.

Song Description: Holy Sweat

Holy Sweat, the opening track of Yahweh Music's album, sets the tone with a powerful anthem of resilience and faith-driven action. Inspired by the energy and spirit of Tim Hansel's book, the song speaks to the challenge and reward of pushing beyond limits. Each verse paints the journey of stepping out of comfort zones, fueled by the courage to fulfill God's calling, while the chorus embodies the passion and strength it takes to strive toward peak performance. With lyrics that resonate with both struggle and triumph, Holy Sweat reminds us that our faith is truly alive when it is active—when we're willing to “sweat” for what we believe in and to pour our heart into the climb. The song inspires listeners to see hard work as an offering of faith, capturing the raw beauty of a life led with purpose.

1. Holy Sweat (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

I feel the weight, the pull, the strain,
Steppin' out, breakin' free from the chain,
With every breath, I'm pushed and tried,
God-given strength won't be denied.

(Chorus)

It's holy sweat that fuels the fight,
Pressin' on, from day to night,
Not just words, but a heart that gives,
In this sweat, my faith truly lives.

(Verse 2)

The climb is steep, the path unknown,
But here I stand, I'm not alone,
With every step, I find my call,
Strivin' upward, givin' my all.

(Chorus)

Holy sweat, the fire inside,
Fueling dreams I've tried to hide,
With grit and grace, I reach to be,
More than I thought was within me.

(Bridge)

It's not for me, it's for the One,
I'm stretchin' far, till the race is run,
Every ounce, I give, I pour,
To serve, to climb, and to seek for more.

(Chorus)

Oh, holy sweat, I feel the burn,
In every step, my soul will learn,
To push, to fight, to seek the peak,
To be the best when I am weak.

2. Missen the Adventure (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

I've been standin' at the edge, feet in the sand,
Waiting for a sign, holding back my hand,
The waves of life are callin', pullin' me near,
But fear keeps me anchored, caught up in my fear.

(Pre-Chorus)

Could I be missin' the adventure, the life that waits?
Stuck in hesitation, at the edge of fate?
The climb is callin', the unknown's right there,
I just need the courage, need to dare.

(Chorus)

I don't wanna miss the adventure, not a step, not a mile,
The journey is worth it, every sweat and every trial.
I'll push past the fear, leave the shore behind,
Trustin' in the One who's guiding my climb.

(Verse 2)

There's a fire in my spirit, buried under the doubt,
A light of purpose just waitin' to break out,
I hear the mountains, feel the heights callin' my name,
It's time to break free, break free from the same.

(Pre-Chorus)

Could I be missin' the adventure, the thrill of faith?
Too caught in comfort to step into the great?
With vision as my compass, courage as my guide,
I'll rise above, take life stride by stride.

(Chorus)

I don't wanna miss the adventure, not a step, not a mile,
The journey is worth it, every sweat and every trial.
I'll push past the fear, leave the shore behind,
Trustin' in the One who's guiding my climb.

(Bridge)

For every missed chance, every moment I stayed,
Life slipped past while I was afraid.
But no more hidin', I'm movin' on,
Strengthened by grace, led by the dawn.

(Chorus)

I don't wanna miss the adventure, I'll go all in,

Through valleys and peaks, let the journey begin.
Every step a story, every climb a song,
With faith as my strength, I'll keep pressing on.

(Outro)

I don't wanna miss it, no, not anymore,
The adventure's callin', I'm ready to soar,
With faith and courage, I'll make my stand,
Missen the adventure? No, I'll take God's hand.

3. Turning Our Theology into Biography (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

It's easy to say what we believe,
To talk of love, but barely leave,
The safety of our comfort, our own little world,
While real lives are waiting to see love unfurled.

(Pre-Chorus)

Faith isn't found in words alone,
It's in the lives we make our own.
We're called to step out, to give and be,
To turn belief into what the world can see.

(Chorus)

We're turnin' our theology into biography,
Livin' out the words that set us free.
Faith in motion, hearts in sync,
With every step, we close the link.
It's more than a story, it's how we live,
A life of love, of truth to give.

(Verse 2)

I can talk about grace, or I can show,
That real grace shines when I let go,
Of my pride, my fears, my perfect plans,
And open up my life to take a stand.

(Pre-Chorus)

So here's to the journey, to walkin' the walk,
Not just thinkin' faith, but lettin' it talk.
Beyond just preachin', to livin' it loud,
In the hustle and quiet, among the crowd.

(Chorus)

We're turnin' our theology into biography,
Livin' out the words that set us free.
Faith in motion, hearts in sync,
With every step, we close the link.
It's more than a story, it's how we live,
A life of love, of truth to give.

(Bridge)

It's love in the struggle, it's grace in the pain,
It's kindness and strength through loss and gain.
A thousand sermons don't mean a thing,

If we won't live what our faith can bring.
So here we go, we're stepping out,
With faith as our anthem, no room for doubt.

(Chorus)

We're turnin' our theology into biography,
Livin' out the words that set us free.
Faith in motion, hearts in sync,
With every step, we close the link.
It's more than a story, it's how we live,
A life of love, of truth to give.

(Outro)

Let my life be the words I say,
In every moment, in every day.
More than belief, a love to see,
Turning my theology into biography.

4. Holiness and Wholeness (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

There's a call to be pure, a call to be true,
More than just rules, it's the life I pursue.
Holiness isn't just staying clean,
It's a life in full color, not gray or unseen.

(Pre-Chorus)

For it's more than sacred moments or words we say,
It's the wholeness in how we live each day.
A heart aligned, mind and soul complete,
Holiness and wholeness in every heartbeat.

(Chorus)

Holiness and wholeness, hand in hand they go,
To be set apart, yet fully whole.
Not divided, not split, but one in grace,
A life of fullness, in every space.
It's how we live, it's how we breathe,
A holy wholeness, that won't deceive.

(Verse 2)

It's living with purpose, it's joy that stays,
Through every trial, in all our ways.
Not just moments on a Sunday morn',
But a life reborn, a heart transformed.

(Pre-Chorus)

This journey to wholeness, it's messy and real,
More than what I say, but in what I feel.
To be holy is to be whole and true,
A heart that reflects the light in You.

(Chorus)

Holiness and wholeness, hand in hand they go,
To be set apart, yet fully whole.
Not divided, not split, but one in grace,
A life of fullness, in every space.
It's how we live, it's how we breathe,
A holy wholeness, that won't deceive.

(Bridge)

Wholeness is healing, wholeness is peace,
It's the quiet strength, where striving can cease.
To be holy, to be one, without a divide,

It's integrity, and God as my guide.
I'm not perfect, but I'm becoming,
A heart that's free, no more running.

(Chorus)

Holiness and wholeness, hand in hand they go,
To be set apart, yet fully whole.
Not divided, not split, but one in grace,
A life of fullness, in every space.
It's how we live, it's how we breathe,
A holy wholeness, that won't deceive.

(Outro)

So let my life be a song that's complete,
Holiness and wholeness in every beat.
To be true to myself, true to You alone,
In holiness and wholeness, I'm fully known.

5. You Gotta Start (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

You can dream all night, you can plan all day,
But nothing moves until you make a way.
The journey begins when you take that stride,
Leave the fear behind, let faith be your guide.

(Pre-Chorus)

It's not about perfection, or the speed of the race,
It's about the courage to start, to take your place.
The mountain looks tall, but don't look too far,
Every great journey begins with a start.

(Chorus)

You gotta start, you gotta move,
Step by step, let your faith prove.
No more waitin', no more fear,
Today's the day you break out and steer.
One foot forward, heart in hand,
You gotta start to take a stand.

(Verse 2)

Every dream was once a spark,
A tiny light in a world so dark.
But you fan the flame when you start to act,
Life is found in movement, that's a fact.

(Pre-Chorus)

It's more than intentions, more than plans,
It's stepping out where courage demands.
The road's unknown, the path may bend,
But you gotta start if you want to ascend.

(Chorus)

You gotta start, you gotta move,
Step by step, let your faith prove.
No more waitin', no more fear,
Today's the day you break out and steer.
One foot forward, heart in hand,
You gotta start to take a stand.

(Bridge)

There's no perfect moment, no flawless time,
Just the heartbeat of now, the mountain to climb.
Don't wait for the stars to align just right,

Rise with the dawn, walk into the light.
Every stumble, every fall,
It's all part of the call.

(Chorus)

You gotta start, you gotta move,
Step by step, let your faith prove.
No more waitin', no more fear,
Today's the day you break out and steer.
One foot forward, heart in hand,
You gotta start to take a stand.

(Outro)

It's in the small steps, the humble choice,
The strength that rises in your voice.
So here's to the journey, here's to the part,
Where faith and courage finally start.

6. Vision (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

Sometimes the road feels long and unclear,
Lost in the shadows, held back by fear.
But deep in my heart, a spark starts to grow,
A glimpse of the journey that I need to know.

(Pre-Chorus)

When I can't see the end or the way,
I trust in the One who lights my day.
With faith as my sight and hope as my guide,
I'll walk the path, let His will decide.

(Chorus)

Give me vision, eyes that can see,
Beyond the present, to what I could be.
A dream in my heart, a plan from above,
A purpose painted with His love.
Show me the way, light up my soul,
With vision, Lord, make me whole.

(Verse 2)

The mountains ahead, they rise so high,
But with each step forward, I learn to fly.
It's not just about what's in front of me,
It's seeing the promise of what could be.

(Pre-Chorus)

When the world feels dark and hope seems thin,
I'll keep my eyes on what lies within.
A calling so clear, a fire so bright,
Leading me onward into the light.

(Chorus)

Give me vision, eyes that can see,
Beyond the present, to what I could be.
A dream in my heart, a plan from above,
A purpose painted with His love.
Show me the way, light up my soul,
With vision, Lord, make me whole.

(Bridge)

Not just sight, but understanding too,
To see the world as You want me to.
With clarity of heart, mind, and soul,

I'll chase the calling that makes me whole.
It's more than a dream, it's my life, my part,
A vision that rises from a faithful heart.

(Chorus)

Give me vision, eyes that can see,
Beyond the present, to what I could be.
A dream in my heart, a plan from above,
A purpose painted with His love.
Show me the way, light up my soul,
With vision, Lord, make me whole.

(Outro)

So here I stand, my path aligned,
A vision clear, no longer blind.
With every step, I'll walk in grace,
Guided by light, my fears erased.

7. Precise Goals (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

I've got a dream, but it's more than a wish,
It's a calling, a purpose I won't dismiss.
Life's too short for wandering blind,
So I'm setting my goals, refining my mind.
Not chasing shadows or empty praise,
But a path that's clear in God's steady gaze.

(Pre-Chorus)

Every step, every plan, anchored in truth,
Driven by purpose, not wasted youth.
With faith as my map and wisdom as my guide,
I'm moving forward with vision wide.

(Chorus)

Precise goals, with a purpose defined,
A life in focus, no dreams left behind.
Not just aimless, but led by grace,
Each goal aligned, each step in place.
Intentional strides, I know where to go,
With precise goals, I'll steadily grow.

(Verse 2)

I've learned that life's not a game of chance,
But a steady walk, not just a dance.
Discipline sharpens, resilience fuels,
Guided by faith, not the world's loose rules.
Through valleys deep, and mountains high,
My goals are clear, my aim to the sky.

(Pre-Chorus)

With each decision, each choice I make,
I follow the path that my Savior's paved.
Not lost in doubt or fleeting dreams,
But grounded in purpose, or so it seems.

(Chorus)

Precise goals, with a purpose defined,
A life in focus, no dreams left behind.
Not just aimless, but led by grace,
Each goal aligned, each step in place.
Intentional strides, I know where to go,
With precise goals, I'll steadily grow.

(Bridge)

Goals that matter, goals that last,
Breaking free from the failures past.
Each goal a prayer, each dream a plea,
To be all You've designed for me.
Through every setback, every delay,
Precise goals help light the way.
Step by step, I'll find my course,
Strengthened each day by a holy force.

(Chorus)

Precise goals, with a purpose defined,
A life in focus, no dreams left behind.
Not just aimless, but led by grace,
Each goal aligned, each step in place.
Intentional strides, I know where to go,
With precise goals, I'll steadily grow.

(Outro)

So here I stand, with goals refined,
Purpose burning, heart aligned.
I'll take each step, keep my aim true,
With God's vision clear, in all I pursue.
Precise goals, my compass, my light,
Leading me onward, day and night.

8. Courage (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

There's a road ahead that's dark and steep,
A climb that's rough, and valleys deep.
But courage whispers in my soul,
"Take the step; you'll be made whole."
It's not about being unafraid,
But standing firm when fears invade.
For in the face of shadows near,
I find my strength, I cast out fear.

(Pre-Chorus)

Every heartbeat, every breath,
Is a step away from fear and death.
With faith as my shield and hope as my guide,
I'll walk this journey side by side.

(Chorus)

Courage to climb, courage to stand,
To face the unknown, holding God's hand.
With every fear, I'll rise above,
Embraced by grace and driven by love.
For courage lives where faith resides,
In the heart that trusts, in God abides.

(Verse 2)

There's a strength I find when I feel weak,
A voice that rises when I can't speak.
It's not in muscles, not in might,
But in the heart that chooses light.
Through storms and trials, pain and loss,
I'll carry my faith, I'll bear my cross.
It's courage that calls me to go on,
To face the dawn when night seems long.

(Pre-Chorus)

With every doubt that shakes my ground,
There's a peace in knowing I'm tightly bound.
To the One who holds my fear and pain,
Who turns my loss into gain.

(Chorus)

Courage to climb, courage to stand,
To face the unknown, holding God's hand.
With every fear, I'll rise above,

Embraced by grace and driven by love.
For courage lives where faith resides,
In the heart that trusts, in God abides.

(Bridge)

When the mountain's high, and the path is steep,
When all seems lost, and hope feels weak.
I'll dig deep down, I'll plant my feet,
And let my courage fill the beat.
For courage isn't in what I see,
But in the trust that sets me free.
To walk through fire, to brave the rain,
Knowing God's with me through the pain.

(Chorus)

Courage to climb, courage to stand,
To face the unknown, holding God's hand.
With every fear, I'll rise above,
Embraced by grace and driven by love.
For courage lives where faith resides,
In the heart that trusts, in God abides.

(Outro)

So here I stand, though the journey's long,
With courage singing my battle song.
Each step I take, each fear I fight,
Leads me forward, into the light.
For courage grows when I choose to trust,
In a God who's faithful, true, and just.

9. Teamwork (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

No one climbs a mountain alone,
We're stronger together, flesh and bone.
Each step I take, each hand I hold,
Makes the journey worth more than gold.
With you beside me, the way grows clear,
Together we conquer every fear.
For when we stumble or when we fall,
We lift each other, standing tall.

(Pre-Chorus)

We're bound by trust, by faith, by grace,
A bond that distance can't erase.
Side by side, in heart and soul,
Together, we reach our common goal.

(Chorus)

Teamwork is strength, unity's power,
In every challenge, we rise, we tower.
With hearts aligned, we're one in mind,
Together we're bold, together we'll find,
The heights we're meant to reach and see,
In teamwork, we find victory.

(Verse 2)

Each one brings a gift to share,
A hand to lend, a heart to care.
Different paths, but one shared aim,
With love that burns like a steady flame.
We're woven close, each strand held tight,
Turning weakness into might.
For every dream that seems too far,
Together, we'll make it ours.

(Pre-Chorus)

Through every storm, through highs and lows,
The strength of unity only grows.
When I'm weak, you carry me through,
And when you're tired, I'll carry you.

(Chorus)

Teamwork is strength, unity's power,
In every challenge, we rise, we tower.
With hearts aligned, we're one in mind,

Together we're bold, together we'll find,
The heights we're meant to reach and see,
In teamwork, we find victory.

(Bridge)

It's not about me; it's not about you,
But what we can accomplish in all we do.
Bound by a purpose, a vision so true,
Together we'll break through and make it new.
One spirit, one mission, one voice, one call,
Together we rise, together we fall.
For in the end, it's the love we share,
A tapestry woven with strength and care.

(Chorus)

Teamwork is strength, unity's power,
In every challenge, we rise, we tower.
With hearts aligned, we're one in mind,
Together we're bold, together we'll find,
The heights we're meant to reach and see,
In teamwork, we find victory.

(Outro)

Hand in hand, we climb, we soar,
Together we're stronger than before.
In every step, in every breath,
We live the strength of our shared quest.
Together, we face each high and low,
With teamwork guiding where we go.

10. Passion for Excellence (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

I won't settle for good enough,
For a life of comfort or fleeting stuff.
There's a fire inside that drives me on,
A thirst for more when the easy is gone.
Not for applause, not for fame,
But to honor God's holy name.
Each task I take, each choice I make,
Is for a purpose that won't forsake.

(Pre-Chorus)

With every step, my spirit strives,
To live a life that fully thrives.
Pushing forward, breaking through,
My passion grows in all I do.

(Chorus)

A passion for excellence, a heart refined,
Giving my best, with all my mind.
In every moment, in all I face,
I'm reaching higher, fueled by grace.
Not for perfection, but to give my all,
With passion for excellence, I stand tall.

(Verse 2)

In the small and great, the seen and unseen,
I give my best, though it may seem routine.
For each moment holds a chance to grow,
To bring God glory in all I sow.
Not chasing praise or fleeting fame,
But lifting up His holy name.
Every trial, every test,
Shapes the heart that strives for the best.

(Pre-Chorus)

When I'm weary, when I'm weak,
His strength gives me the excellence I seek.
Through each hurdle, each delay,
I find purpose along the way.

(Chorus)

A passion for excellence, a heart refined,
Giving my best, with all my mind.
In every moment, in all I face,

I'm reaching higher, fueled by grace.
Not for perfection, but to give my all,
With passion for excellence, I stand tall.

(Bridge)

Excellence isn't in what I gain,
But in serving well through joy and pain.
In every task, both big and small,
I give my best, I give my all.
For life is brief, and time is fast,
I'll make each moment purpose-filled, steadfast.
With every challenge, every climb,
I'm pushing boundaries, defying time.

(Chorus)

A passion for excellence, a heart refined,
Giving my best, with all my mind.
In every moment, in all I face,
I'm reaching higher, fueled by grace.
Not for perfection, but to give my all,
With passion for excellence, I stand tall.

(Outro)

For His glory, for His light,
I'll keep pushing with all my might.
A passion for excellence, my life's desire,
To honor God with holy fire.
Every breath, each step I take,
Is a chance to give, a chance to make
A life that reflects His endless grace—
A journey of excellence, a holy race.

11. Servant Leadership (Lyrics)

(Verse 1)

A leader's heart is born to serve,
Not for praise, nor fame's reserve.
In humble steps, I'll take the way,
To lift others up, to light their day.
With every soul, with every hand,
I'll walk beside, I'll take a stand.
For greatness lies in love and grace,
In giving all, I find my place.

(Pre-Chorus)

It's not the power, not the throne,
But being there when we feel alone.
In servant hands, in gentle care,
We lead through love, with hearts laid bare.

(Chorus)

Servant leadership, a humble call,
To raise the least, to give our all.
With open hands, with heart and soul,
We serve, we lead, we make others whole.
For Christ showed love through sacrifice,
And calls us now to pay the price.

(Verse 2)

Not to rule, not to claim,
But to serve others in His name.
To kneel before, to wash their feet,
In selfless love, our calling's sweet.
With open arms, we lift them high,
Their burdens shared, our spirits tied.
In every act, in word and deed,
We find our strength in those in need.

(Pre-Chorus)

To lead with love, to guide with grace,
To see the world as a sacred place.
For in each life, in each heart's cry,
We're called to lift, to edify.

(Chorus)

Servant leadership, a humble call,
To raise the least, to give our all.
With open hands, with heart and soul,

We serve, we lead, we make others whole.
For Christ showed love through sacrifice,
And calls us now to pay the price.

(Bridge)

It's not the title, not the name,
But loving hearts that win the game.
To stand behind, to lift ahead,
To feed the hungry, to break the bread.
For every life, for every soul,
A servant's heart will make them whole.
In giving first, in bending low,
True leadership begins to grow.

(Chorus)

Servant leadership, a humble call,
To raise the least, to give our all.
With open hands, with heart and soul,
We serve, we lead, we make others whole.
For Christ showed love through sacrifice,
And calls us now to pay the price.

(Outro)

So here I am, in humble might,
To serve with love, to be the light.
A servant's path, a leader's way,
To give, to serve, to love each day.
For in His steps, I find my own,
In service deep, I'm fully known.
Servant leadership, my heart's creed,
To follow Christ, to serve in deed.
